
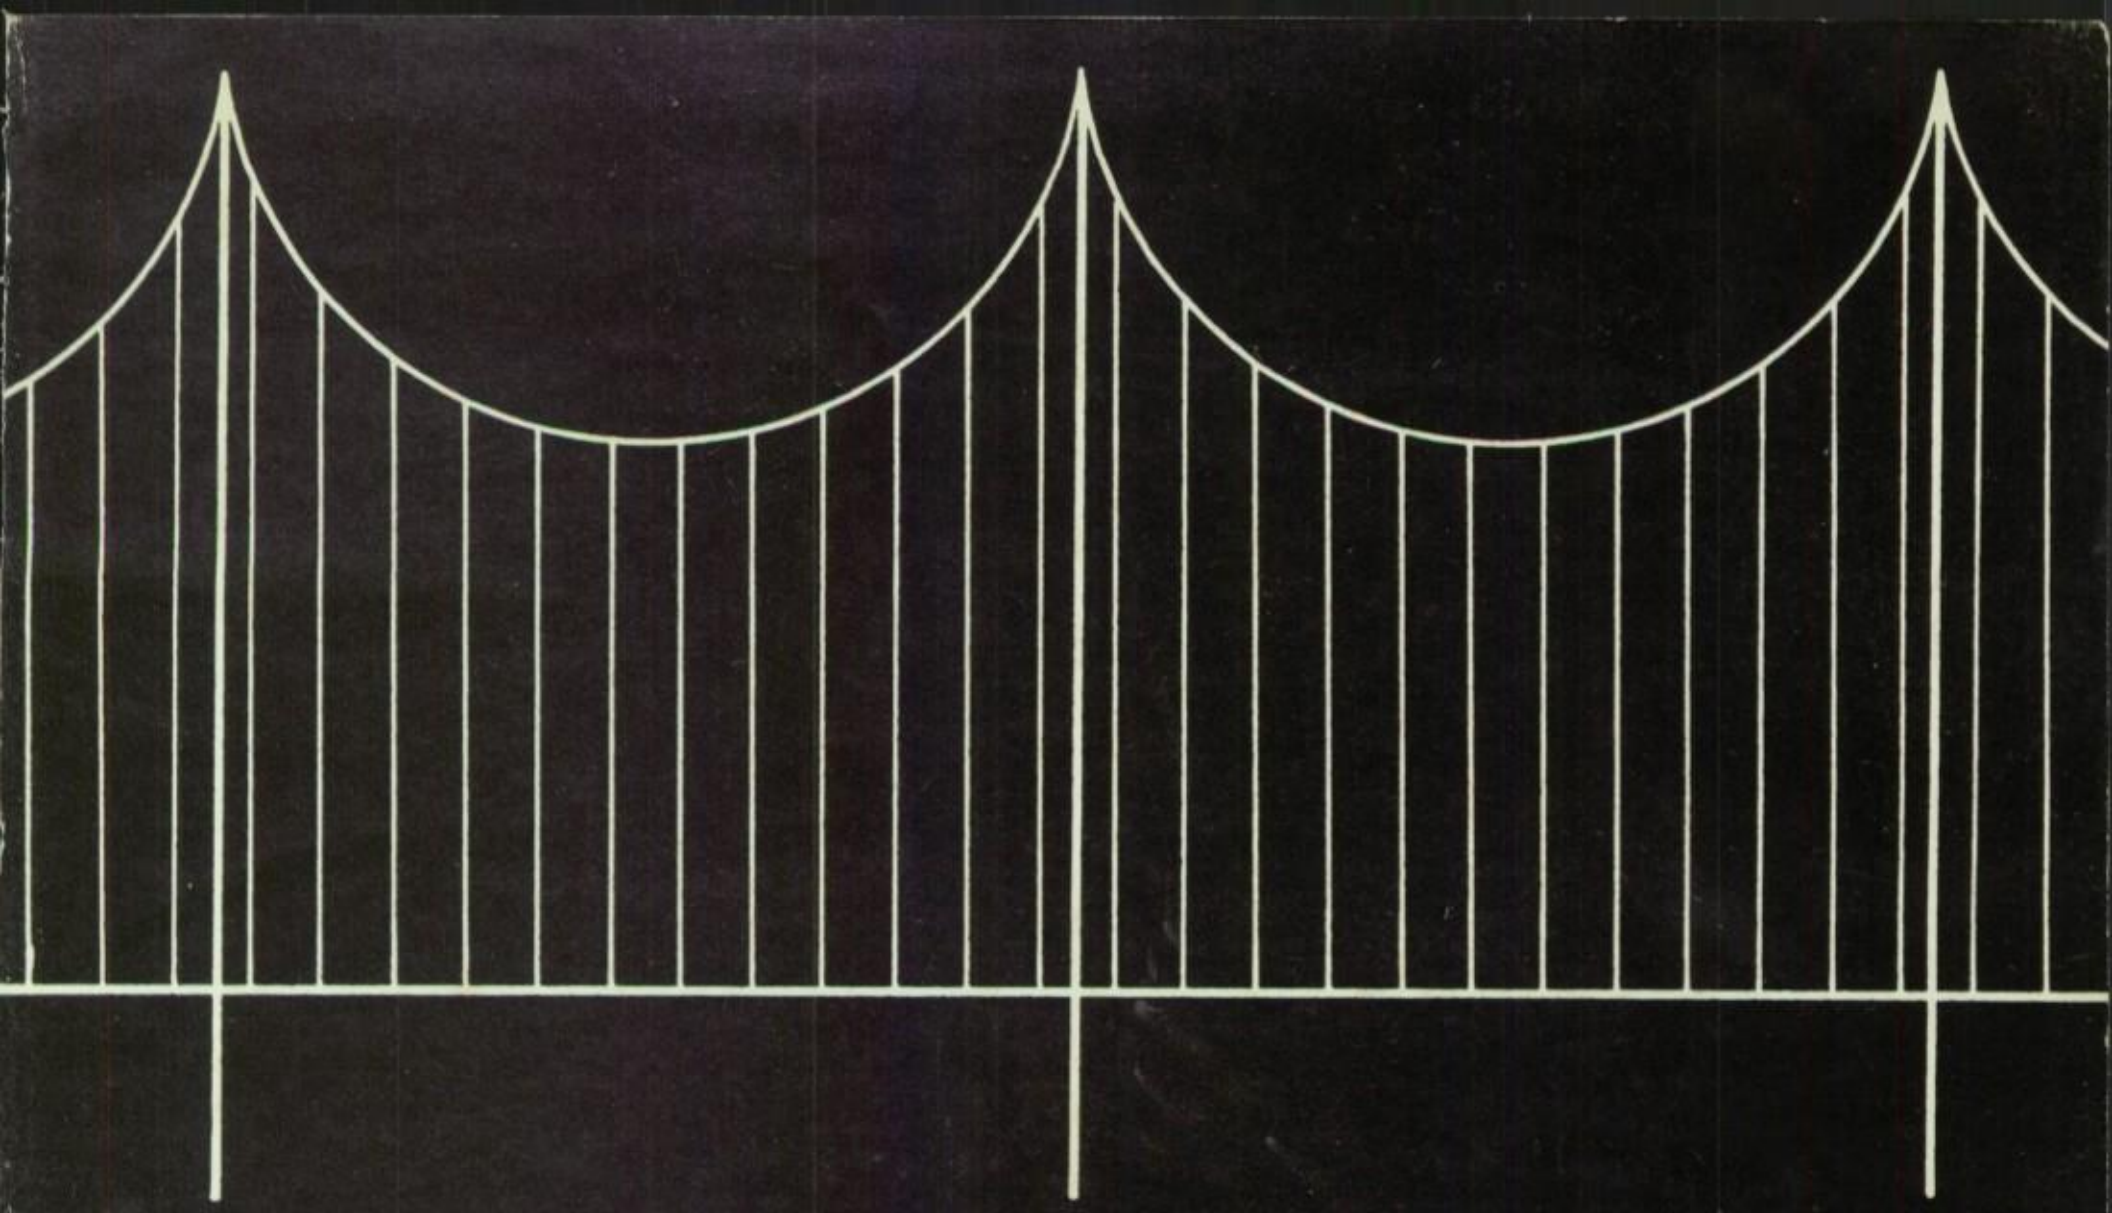
THE EAGLE

1966



Life is filled with hopes and dreams. People love, people hate, and people strive for victory and honor. Life also contains a countless procession of bridges which each must cross in order to attain his goals. Others can instruct and guide us, but we must have the will to put one foot ahead of the other and continue the march.

The '66 annual staff sincerely hopes that it has successfully and satisfactorily recorded the events of the year. We also hope that this year has benefited everyone and prepared the student body for life's many...

We Dedicate

The annual staff of 1966 dedicates this yearbook to the Castete's, with sincere thanks and gratitude for all they have done for the student body as a whole. Mrs. Castete has helped make the S.F.A. Pep Squad a fine organization in which the community is quite proud. Mr. Castete has been a guiding light to our football team here at S.F.A. He has spent many long hours drilling and pushing our team on to victory. Susan has been mascot for three years, and though she is only eight, she has been a contributing factor to the cheerleading line.

Mr. and Mrs. Castete reside at 2886 62nd St. in Port Acres. They are the proud parents of two children, Susan and Ann Castete who is five years old. Mr. and Mrs. Castete were two leading students during their high school and college years and have extended this leadership to the halls of S.F.A. as teachers and sponsors.

The Student Body extends their greatest appreciation and best wishes to the Castete family.

Mr. and Mrs.

Entire family.

This Yearbook to Y' All

"They really shouldn't have, but it's nice to be appreciated."

Christmas fun.

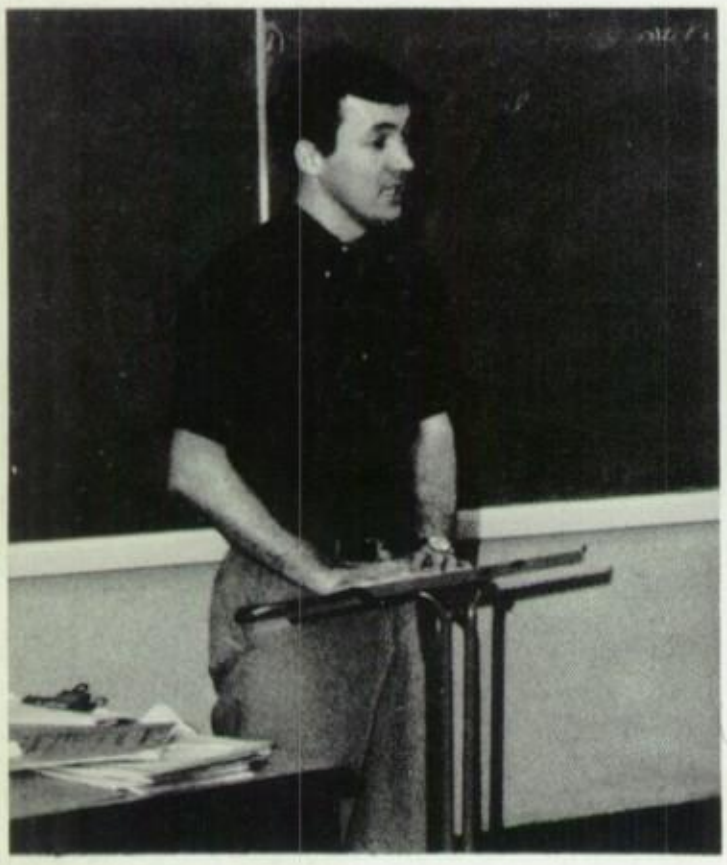
Our Administrators

Build Bridges

These wonderful people have dedicated their lives to the task of bridging the countless gaps we encounter. They offer each of us the knowledge and know-how we must have in order to walk steadily onward into the future.

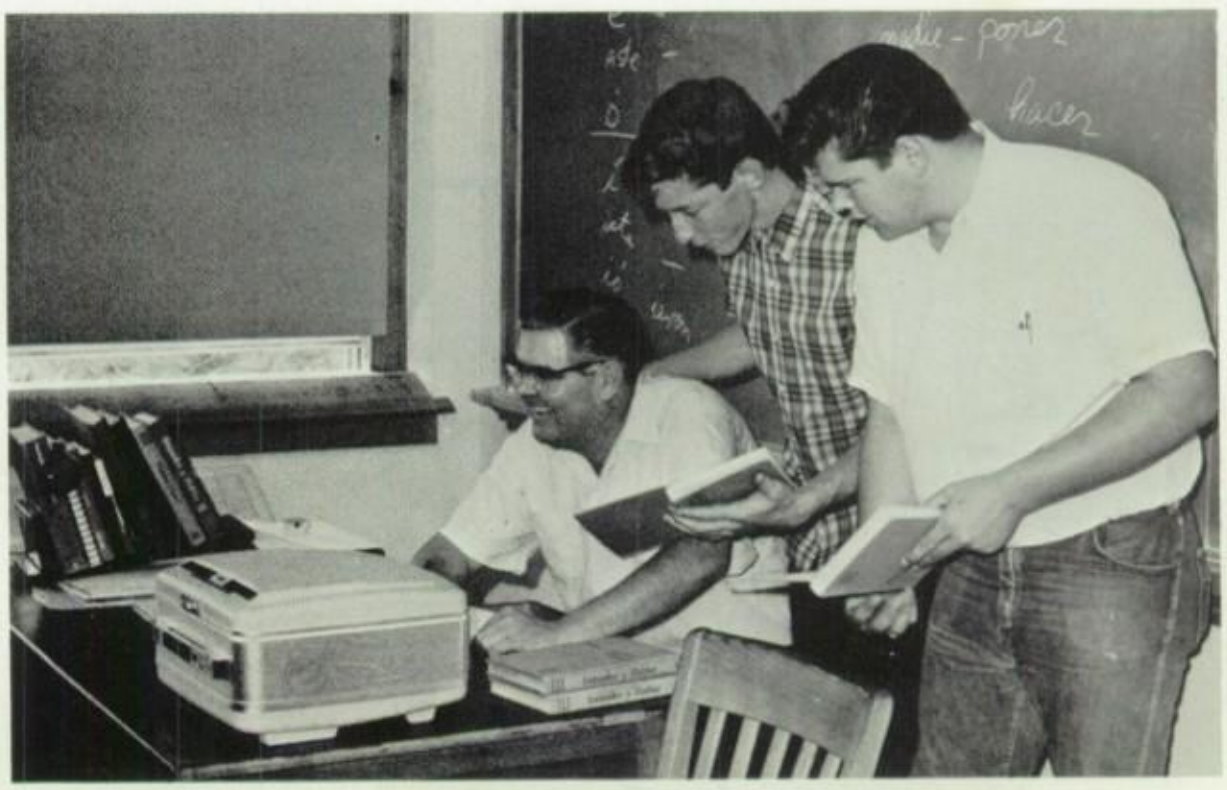
Seems like Ricky Hawthorne doesn't mind being excluded from the gossip section.

Alright Foreman, what are you up to now?



"Students, it's the shape of your mouth that counts."

It seems Miss Kethley is posing for the Hall of Fame.



Can the Three Musketeers possibly be Spanish?

Dr. L. A. Yates has been more of a close friend to the students of our school than a principal. During transition, one may find him in the main hall, arms crossed, face friendly but observant and always willing to help any student with any problem he may have.

He received his B.S. and M.S. at L.S.U. and his E.D.D. at the Univ. of Houston. Before coming here, he was the assistant principal at Edison.

On June 9, 1943 he married Dorothy and now has one daughter, Lynne Ann, age 14.

His favorite hobby is golf and he may add jokingly, "running Stephen F. Austin."

Our school is kept in ship-shape condition by the custodians who pick up after the students who sometimes forget what a wastepaper basket is for.

The cafeteria staff cooks and bakes for the students who become increasingly fat on such goodies as meringue pie.

Linda Holbrook must be telling her jokes again.

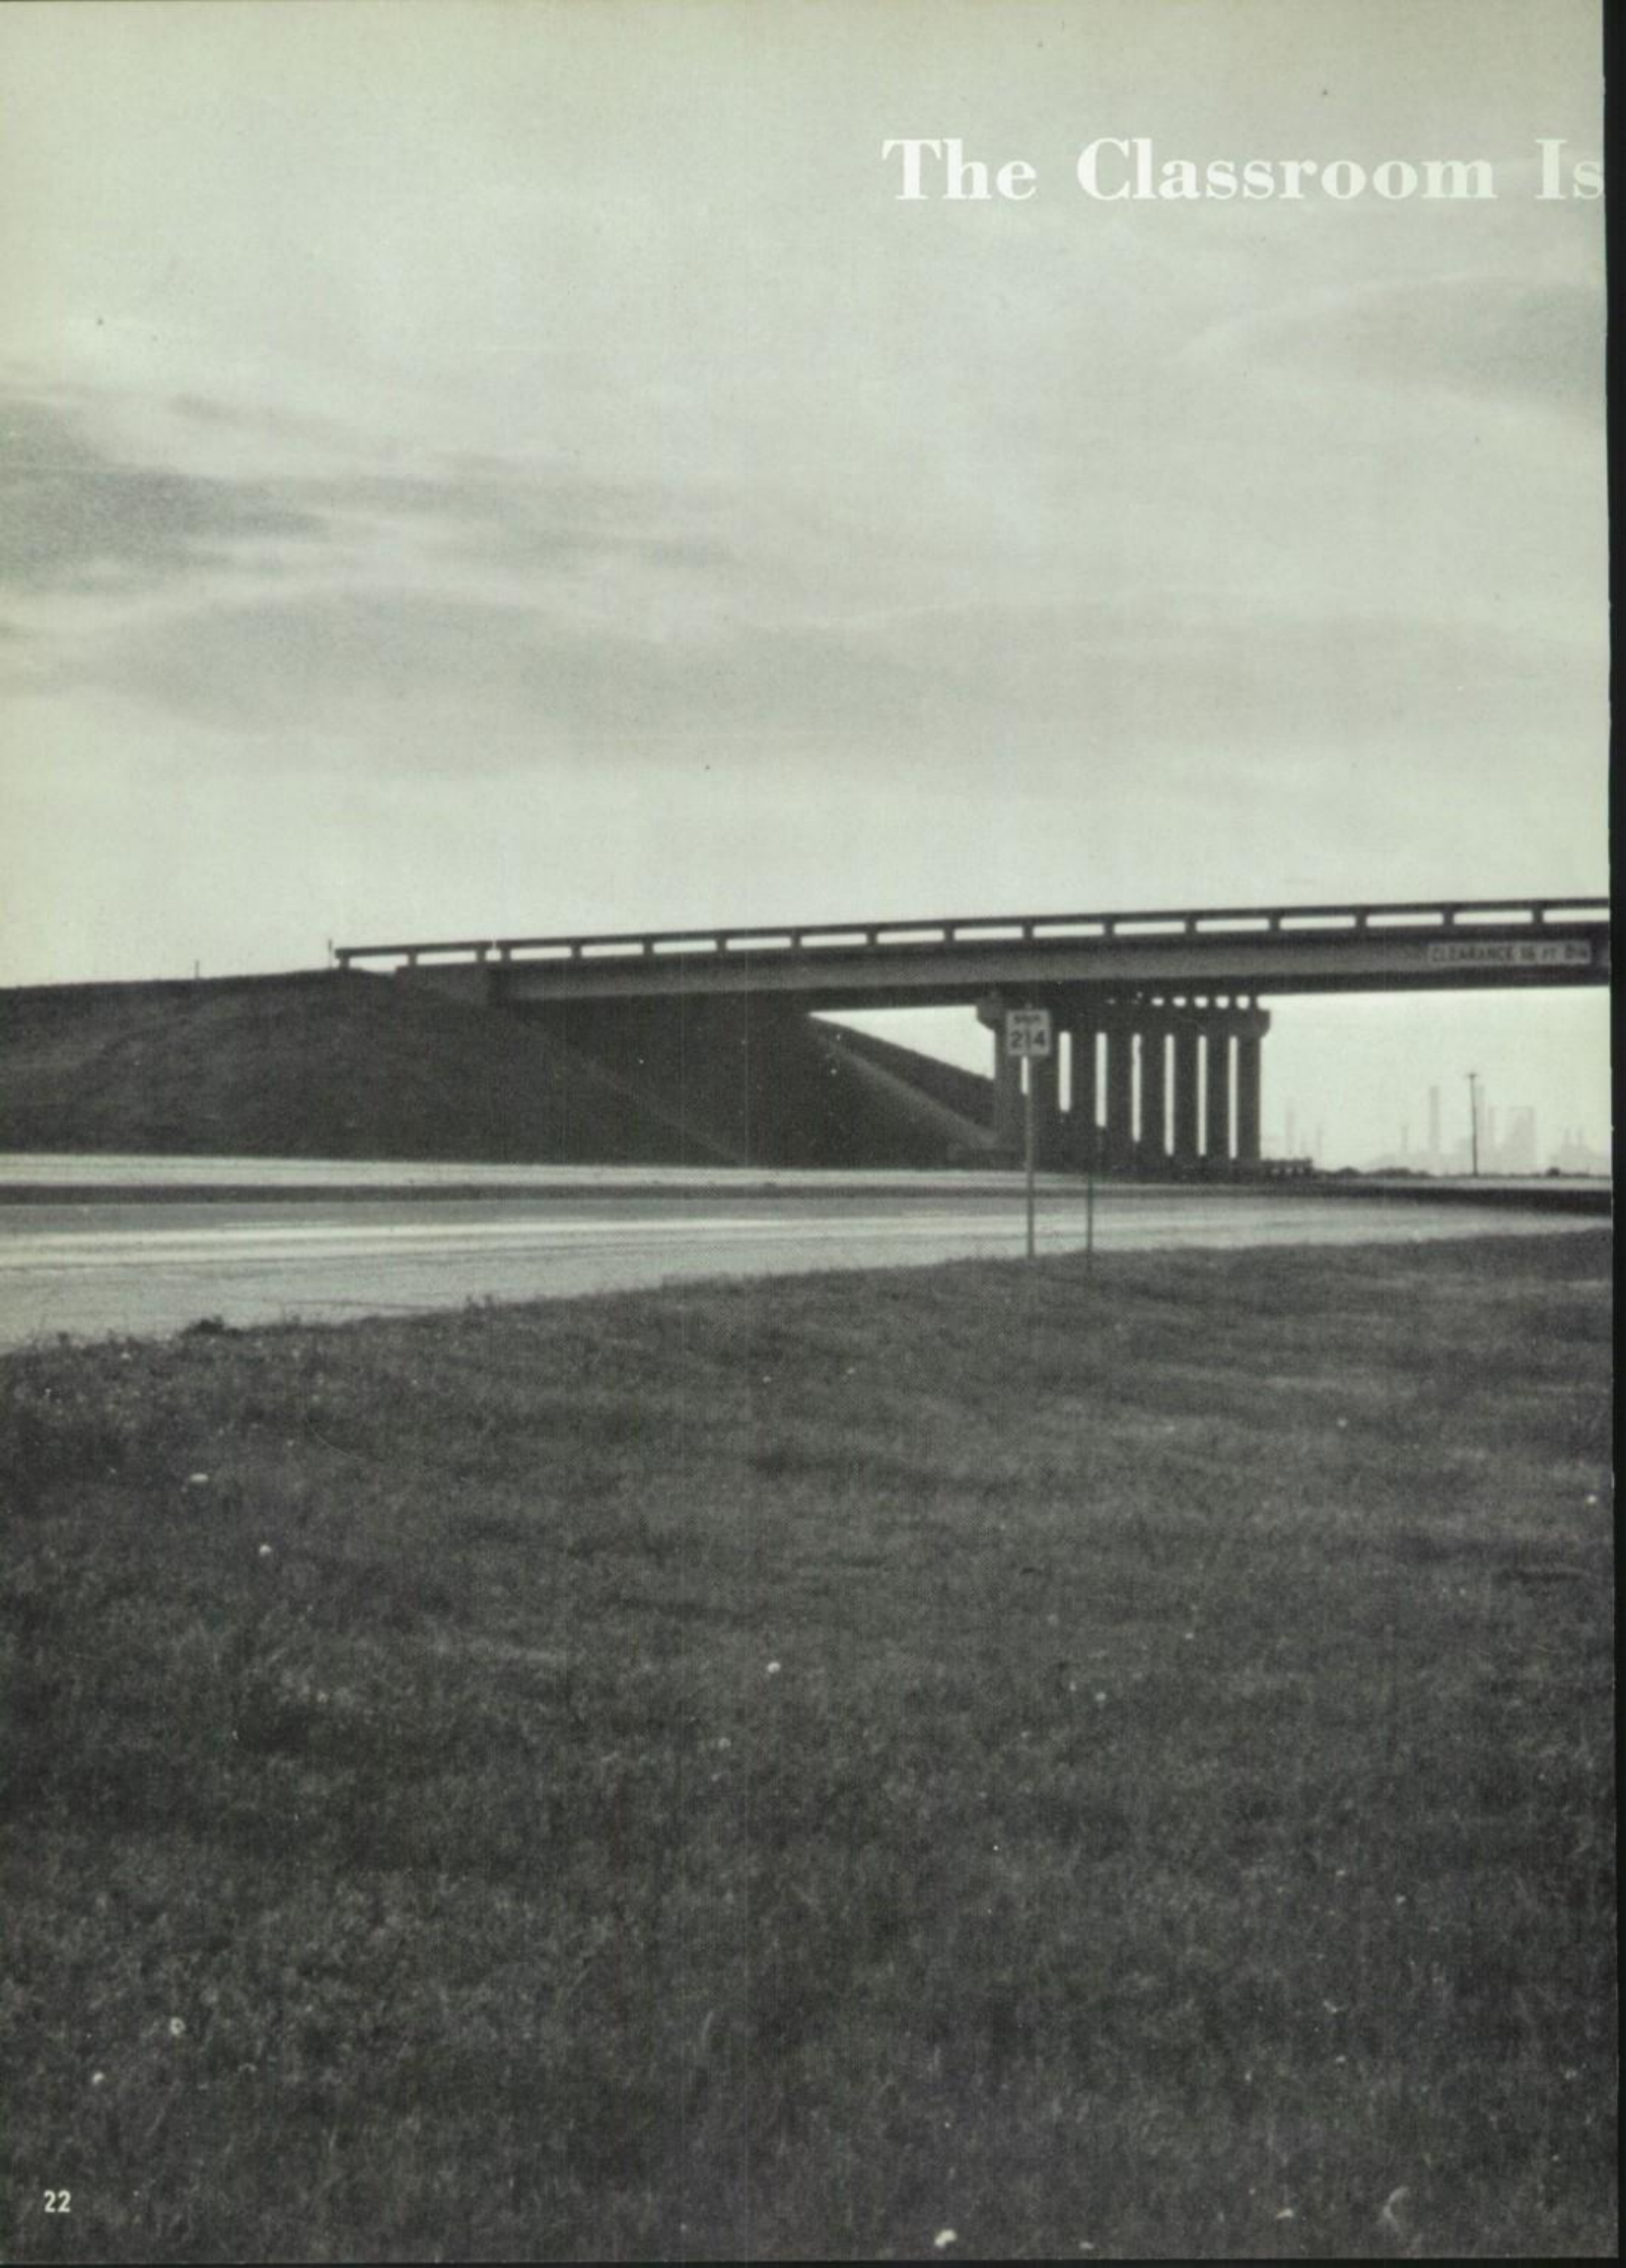
The Classroom Is



The Training Ground

In the classroom we master the numerous techniques which can be applied in our search for success. This success comes only when we acquire the ability to cross a bridge, any bridge.

CLASS

Citizenship, diligence, integrity. These are the tools which have enabled our Seniors to cross one of life's many bridges. It is with great pride that we dedicate these pages to the Senior Class of 1966.

Arlene lights the bonfire while many look on.

While the Student Council makes money, the boys make time with their girls by buying them mums for the big game and after-dance.

Pots and pans, clarinets and trombones break the dawn and wake up Port Acres as the students show their team that they're really behind them.

Homecoming Queen Candidates

THE QUEEN is escorted off the field by her father as the band plays "Embraceable You".

Homecoming Queen

Spirit was high and the Eagles were over-coming each foe as they forged forward to cope District and Bi-District. The season was highlighted with the return of the Exes to see Madeline Alford crowned Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming Pep Rally

In every game, good sportsmanship plays a big role. The winners of this title were Clifford Carlin and Charlene Nunez. Throughout the week of Homecoming, much spirit was shown by every student in S.F.A. The two possessing the most were Arlene Hildabridle and Richard Hagen.

Larry Gary is recognized for his beautiful poster.

The pep rallies at S.F.A. always held the attention of the students.

Choir Programs

The choir performed at a P.T.A. meeting.

Doesn't everyone look lovely?

The choir changed clothes to sing songs of spring.

Paula and Mr. Manry sing a duet.

Singing a trio were Paula, Shelia and Robin.

Why is everyone standing around with their mouth open?

Come on girls, sing out.

N H S Installation

New members of the N.H.S. stand to sing the school song.

President, Marlynda Mouirquies, stands to begin the installation of new members.

Linda Goodson explains the meaning of her symbol.

Dr. Yates expresses admiration for the newly elected.

Richard Theriot shows off the ribbon for his art. He also got the art award.

Our award winning cast seemed to be taking it quite easy on their way to Austin.

Everyone stops to pose for the camera. Could it be that there are some hams in the group?

coming A School of Recognition

Arlene Hildabridle and Mr. Manry are shown with their certificates for winning the Voice of Democracy and V.F.W. speeches.

Lucy Delcambre and Ed Chesson won best actor and actress in Region and District.

Charles Adams won a position on the All-star cast. Terry Ray won Hon. Mention.

Charles Adams and Marlynda Mouirquies were outstanding in speech.

Student Council Sponsors Activities

The food drive helped to give the less fortunate a merrier Christmas. Those heading the food drive were: Donald Pujol, Chesley Minter, Paula Chesson, and Carroll Higginbotham.

Sandra Byers was chosen Queen of Hearts. Her escort was Isabel Moreno,

Steve Hall and Jack Jones seemed to have a good time.

Everyone Watches.

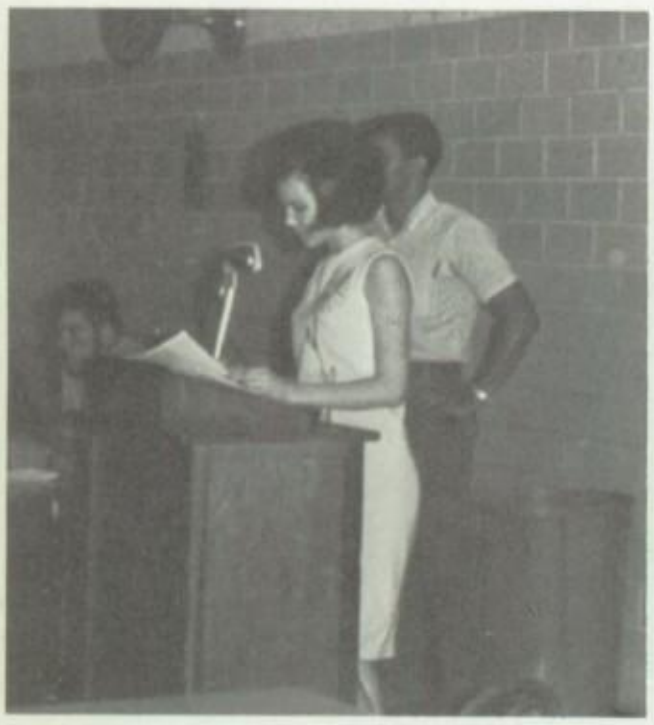
A Special Day Is Set for Kennedy Memorial

The day began with a flag ceremony.

Marlynda gave a speech on the life of John F. Kennedy.

This year has been one of the most productive in the history of Stephen F. Austin Student Councils. The Student Council has made more progress and given the students more activities than ever before.

Blue and Gray Party Conventions



Chairman Mike Battaglio and Secretary Linda Goodson began the Gray Party Rally.

Clifford Carlin began the Blue Party Rally.

Ed Chesson made a speech in favor of Charles Adams.

Terry Ray stands to cast his vote.

Susan Sparks cast her vote.

Lynn Hatch accepts the nomination for Veep.

Everyone gave a show of hands.

Installation of New Student Council Officers

The new and old presidents, Carroll and Arlene, stand together and review student council progress.

The new officers seem rather nervous.

Is this a smiling occasion?

Carroll begins the installation.

Lynn Boudreaux got an award in shop.

The American Legion award went to Judy Parker and Edward Polombo.

The Class of '66 gather around the flagpole for the annual ceremony.

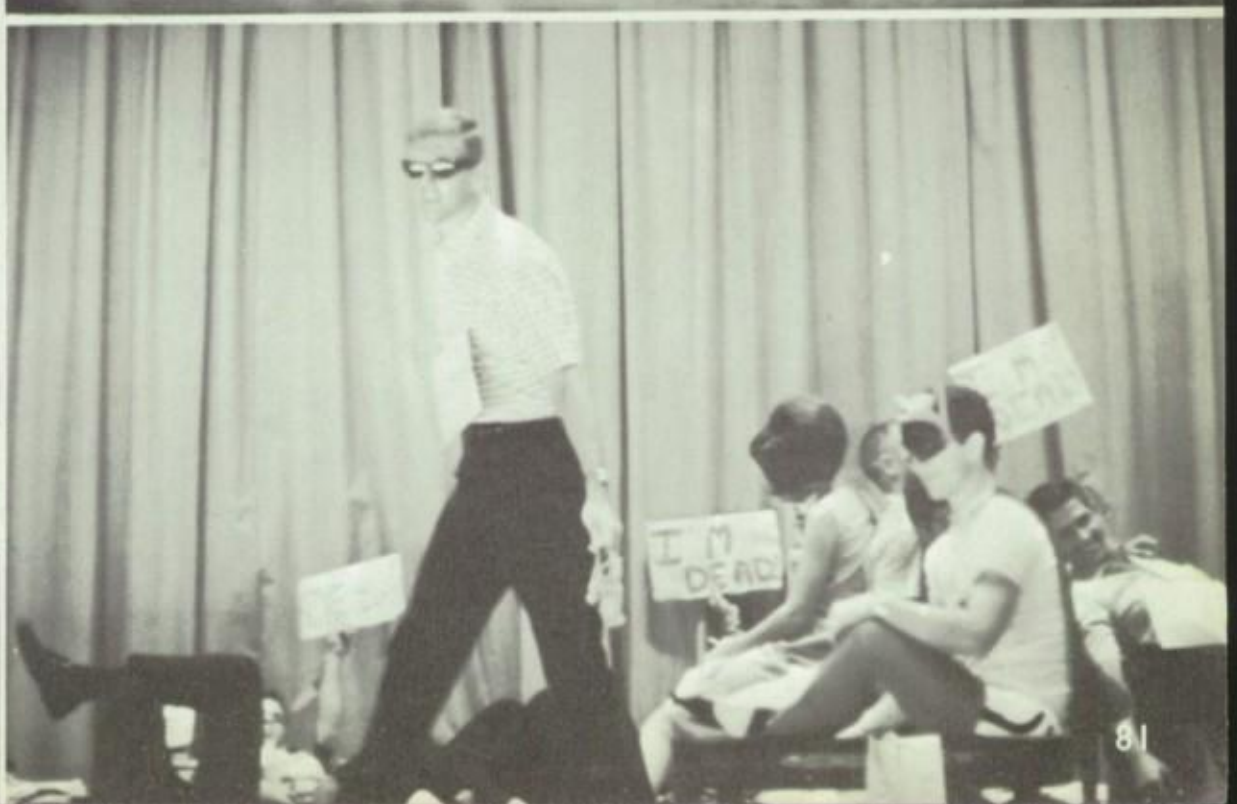
Everyone is smiles.

Why so solemn?

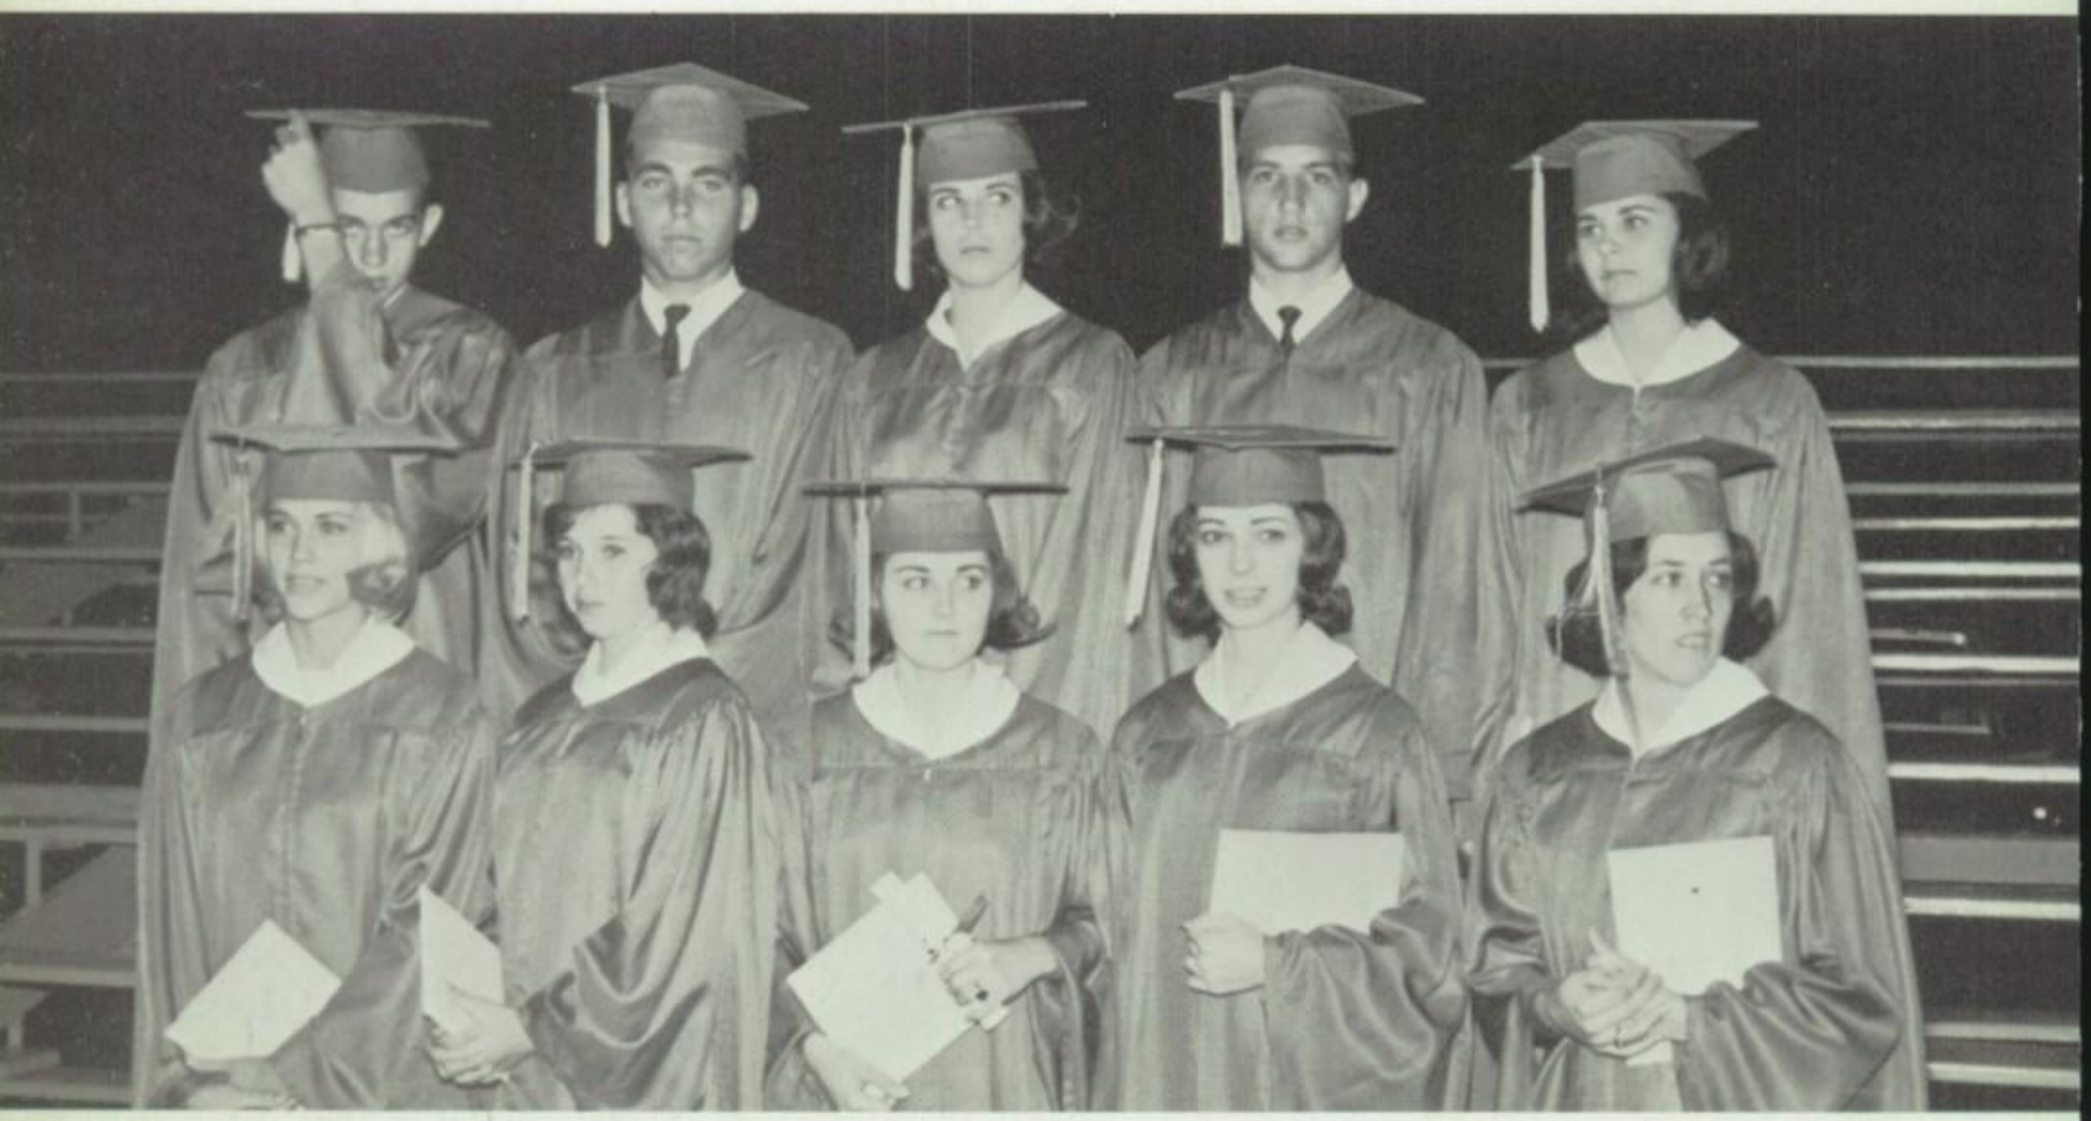
Madeline sure is happy.

Senior Play

Every year at the end of school, the students file into the auditorium to see the senior play. This year was no exception. The play was based on a spy theme.



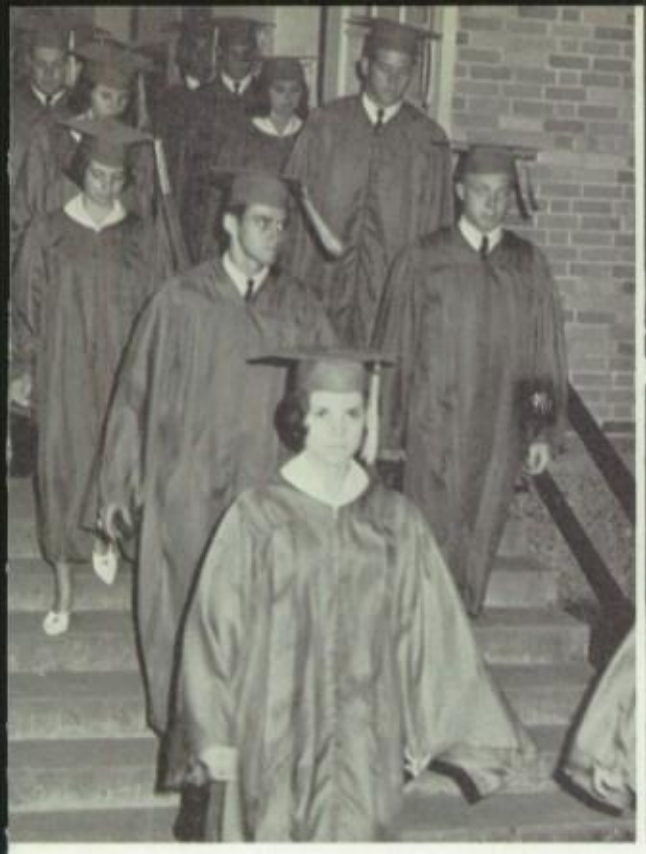
Graduation Night



The top ten of the '66 graduating class were:
FIRST ROW; Sandra Mouhot, Peggy McLarty, Marlynda Mouirguies, Linda Picou, and Paula Chesson. SECOND ROW: Tommy Hawthorne, Carroll Higginbotham, Linda Goodson, Lynn Boudreaux, and Evelyn Borel. Tommy Hawthorne was chosen salutatorian.

Everyone listens attentively.

What's so bad about graduation?



Don't be scared, Sandy.

Ex Stephen F. Austin principal, Mr. A. Koerth, introduces speaker.

Congratulations, Deb.

While the band played and the choir sang "Climb Ev'ry Mountain", a few tears appeared.

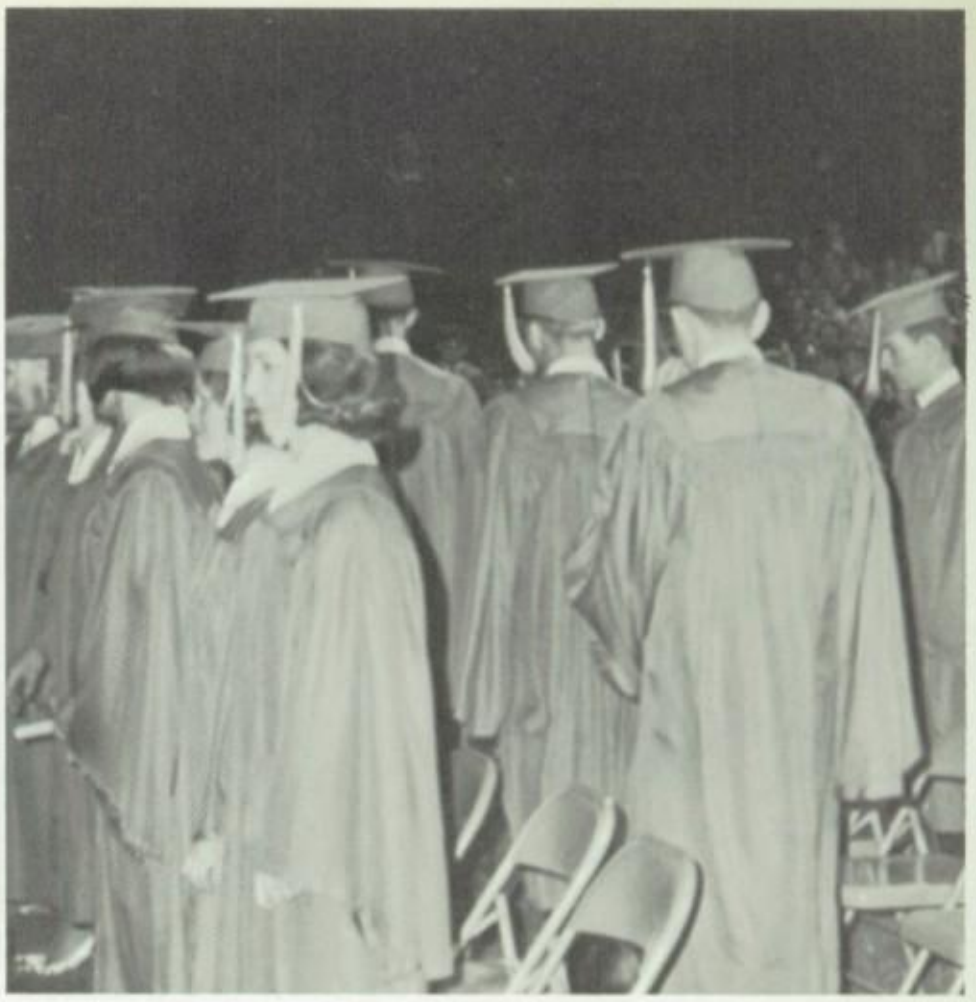
Mrs. Jehlen changes the tassel.

Dr. Yates gets ready to present the diplomas.

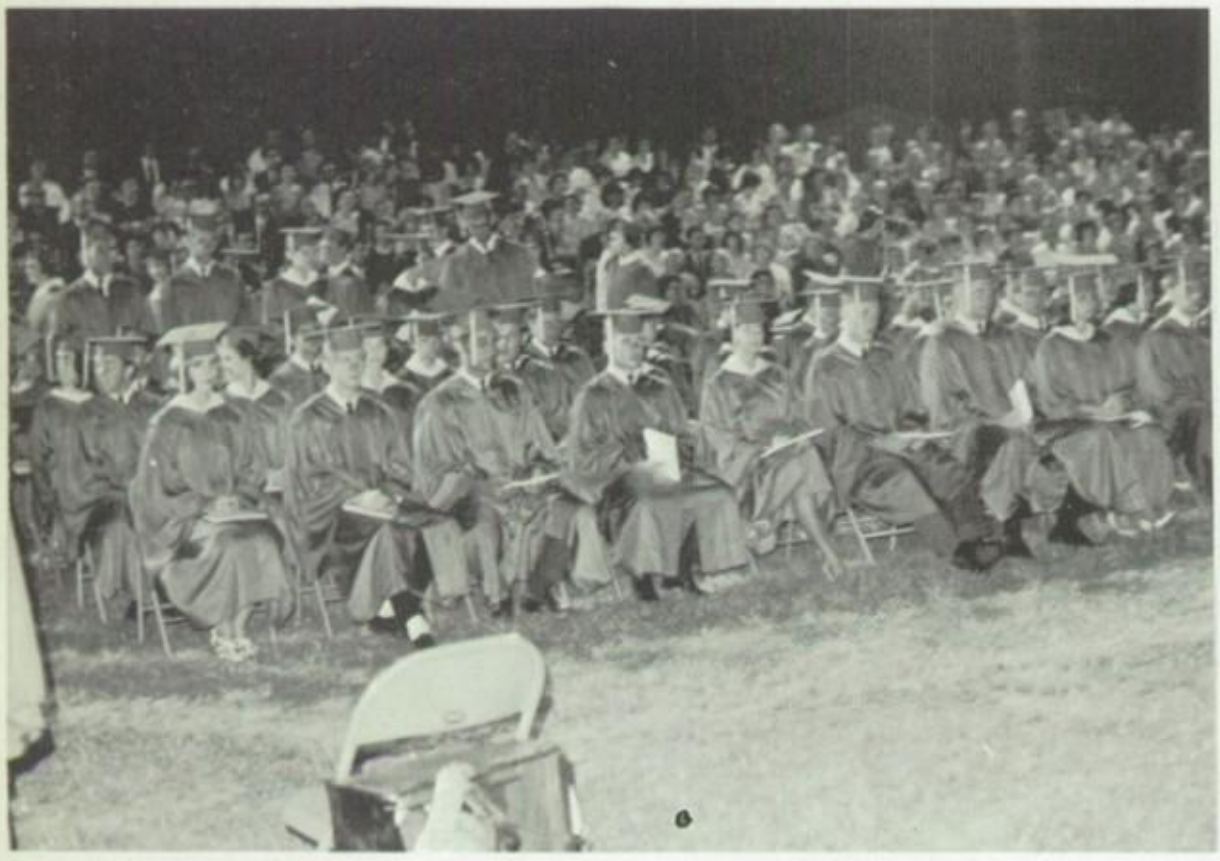
"I finally made it!"

"So did I!"

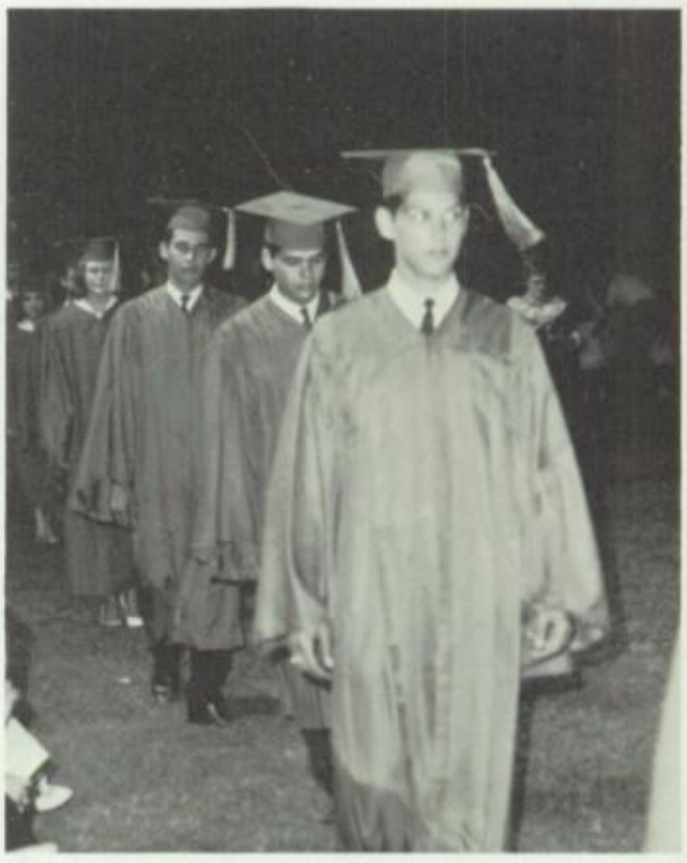
Commencement Exercises begin as the robed Seniors of '66 file out the door.



The Class of '66 arrange themselves in the proper order to receive their diplomas.



The class remains seated after receiving diplomas.



The Lawless boys file out.

The tassel turning for Glenna.

Those great high school days are over forever.

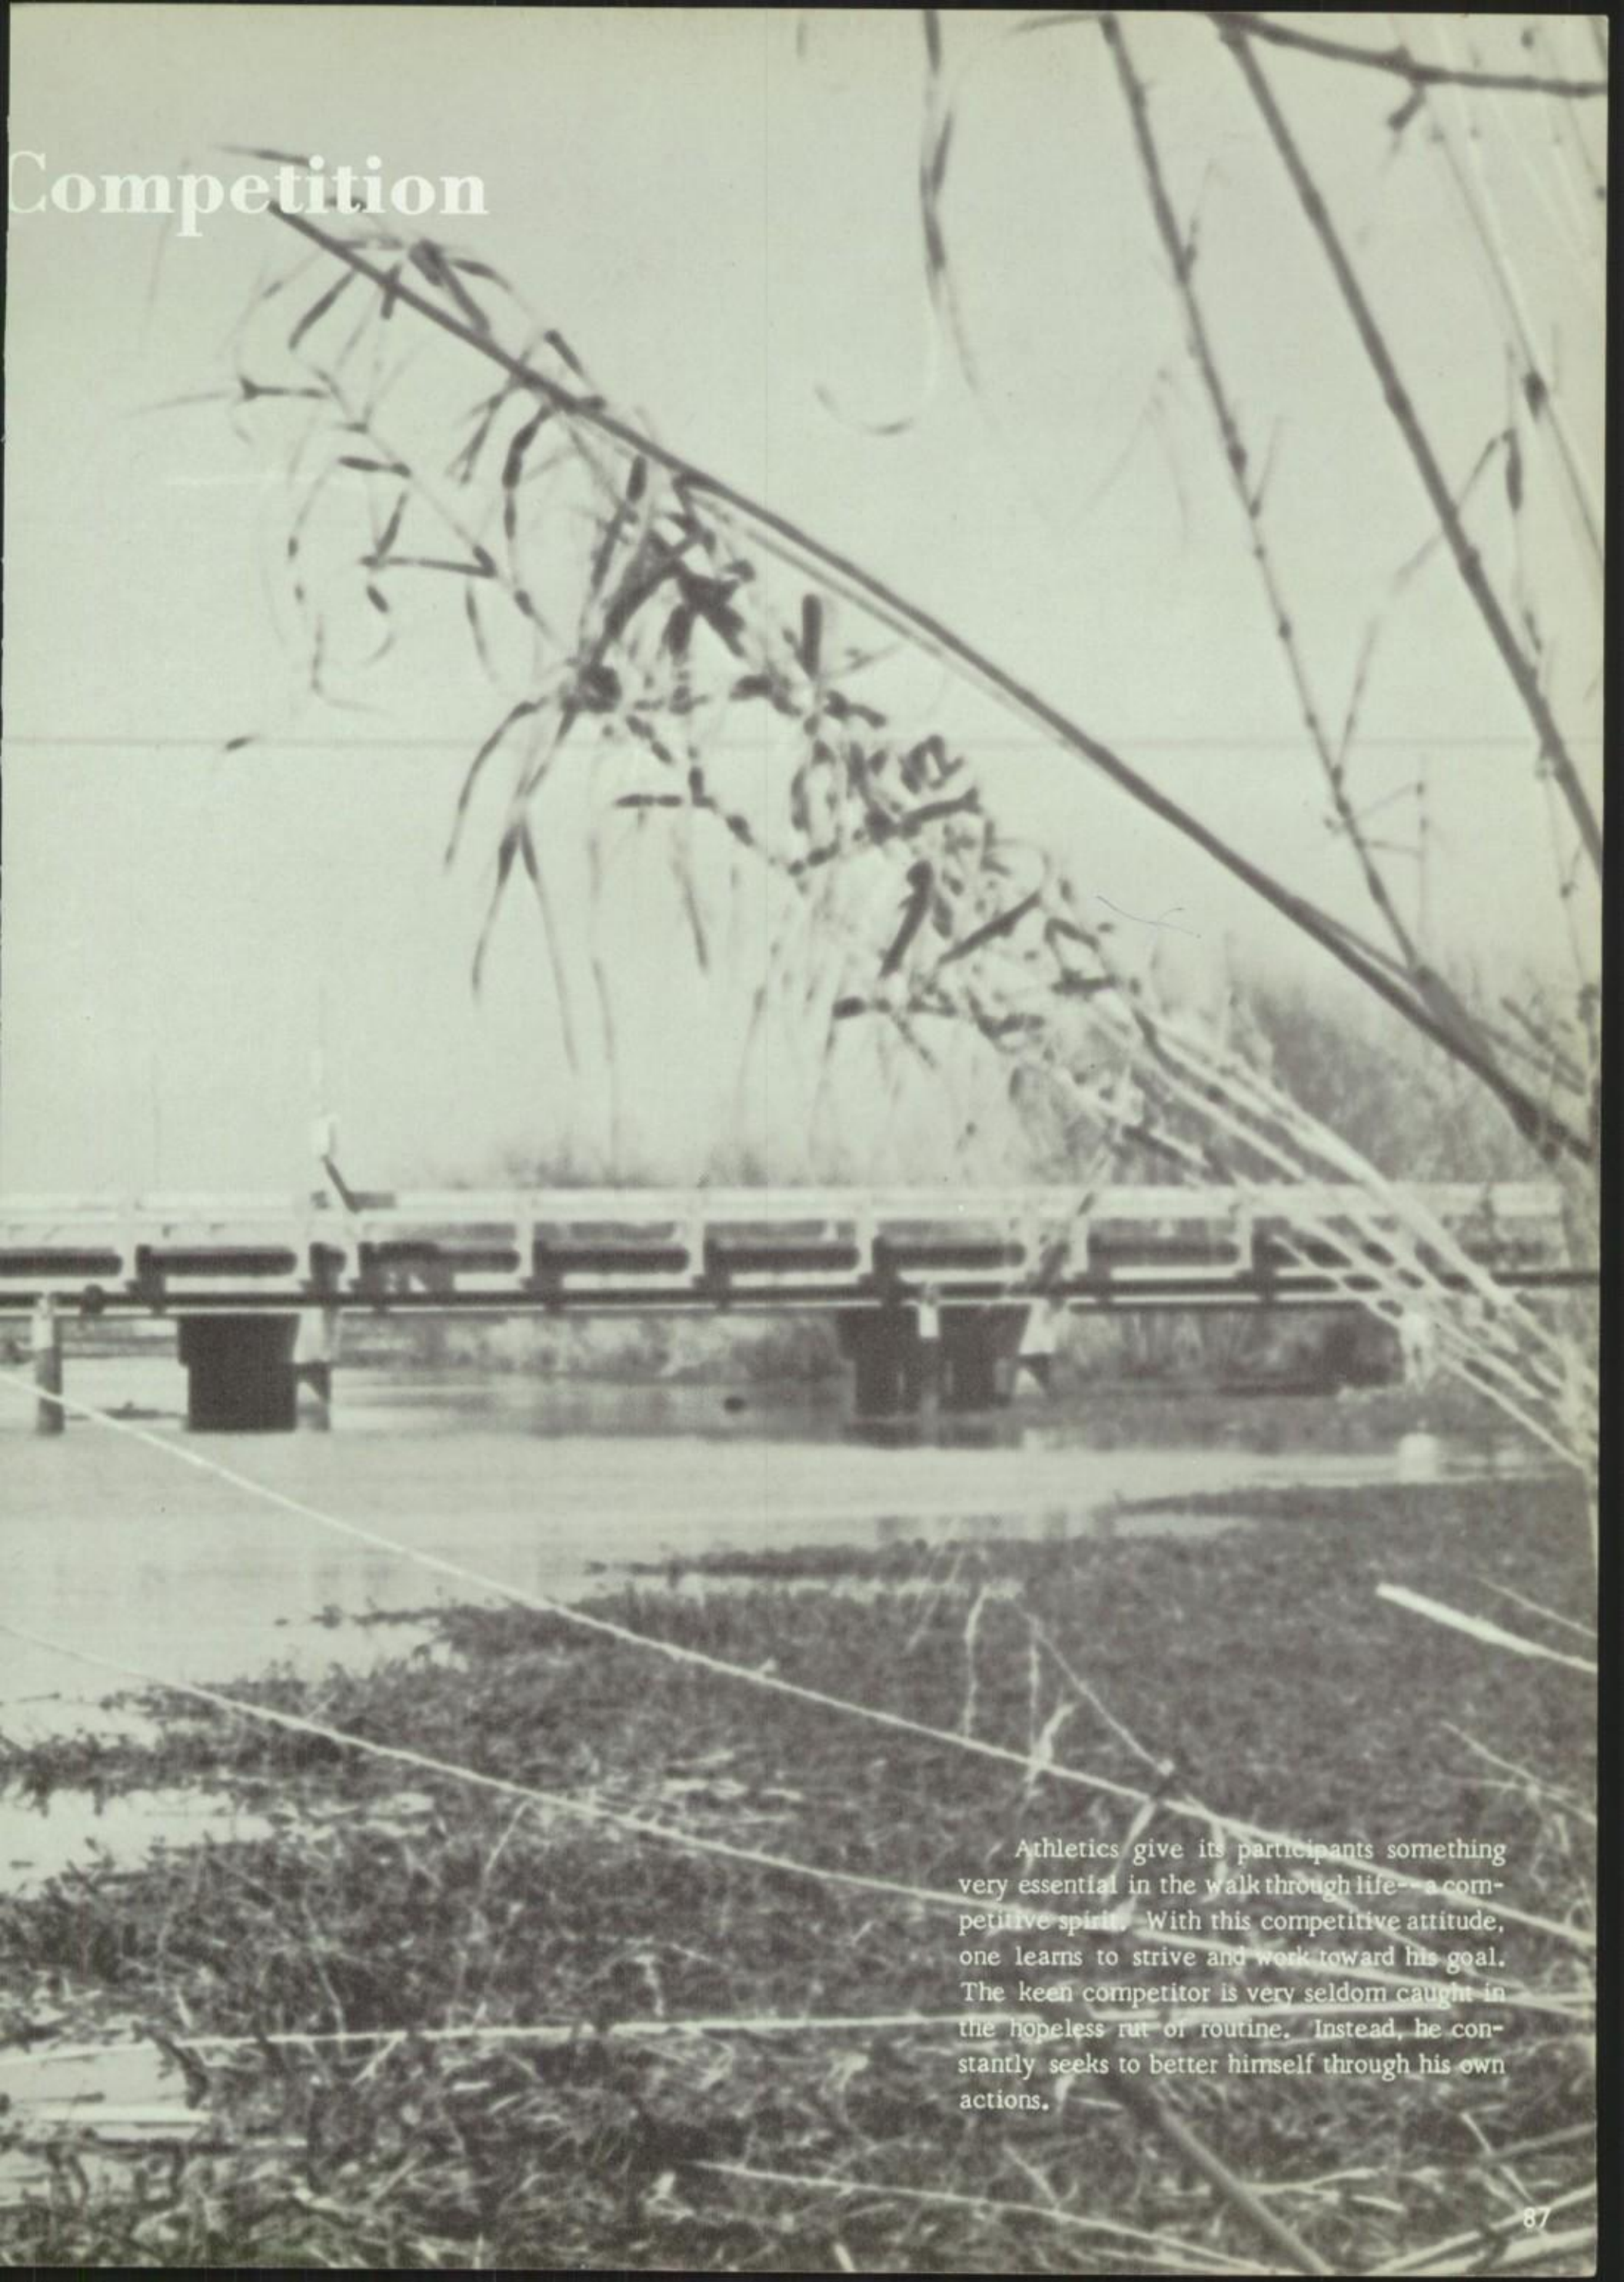
Athletics Stres

Competition



Athletics give its participants something very essential in the walk through life--a competitive spirit. With this competitive attitude, one learns to strive and work toward his goal. The keen competitor is very seldom caught in the hopeless rut of routine. Instead, he constantly seeks to better himself through his own actions.

Junior High School

The students in Junior High School are representatives of the bridge builders of the future. In Junior High School they are exposed to responsibilities, and are taught to accept defeat as well as victory.

Teachers turning cheerleaders? What will they think of next?

Really now, did she think the choir was really all that bad?

Isabel stands by while Dr. Yates crowns Sandra Byars.

Linda looks mad, do you think Buster wants money?

Everyone wants to get in.

The Student Council plants a tree in honor of President Kennedy.

Mr. Manry sure can do a good make-up job.

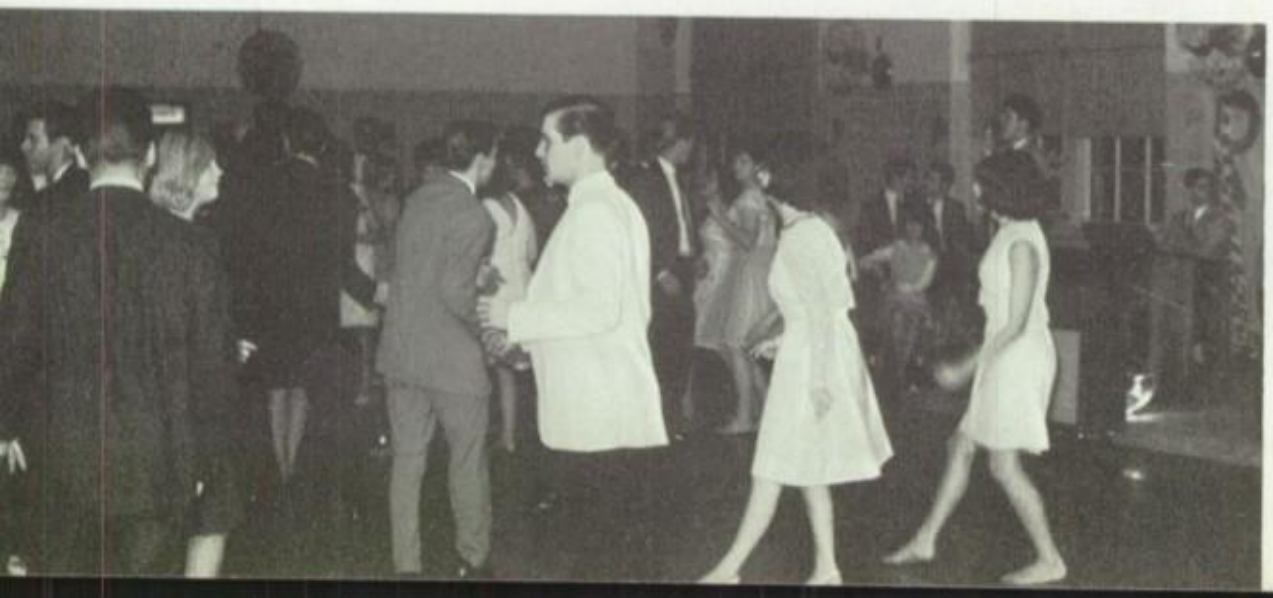
Something seems quite interesting.

Looks like he had something on his mind instead of taking pictures.



Everyone seems to be enjoying himself.

I wonder if there's any conversation, it looks pretty tiring.

Looks as if Jimmy Devers is going to enjoy shooting Mr. Tunnell.

Do you think it could be very interesting?

What happened? Why's everybody looking at everyone else?

Well he was, but it looks like Mr. Tunnell isn't going to go along.
